EAST TEXAS COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS

PRESS RELEASE

Higher Speed Rail Progress Announcement to be Made Tomorrow at Amtrak Official's Promotion Reception

Marshall, TX, August 26, 2010: The East Texas Corridor Council's (ETCC) governmental affairs chair, Harrison County Judge Richard Anderson, will share an announcement regarding progress towards bringing higher speed rail to East Texas at a reception in the Amtrak Rail Passenger Station in Marshall on Friday, August 27, at 2:00 PM. The reception is honoring Amtrak's Joy Spencer Smith for her promotion to Superintendent of Passenger Services at Chicago.

"Mrs. Smith has been the dynamic champion of southwestern rail passenger progress for more than fifteen years, especially for East Texas stations," said ETCC chair, Tim Vaughn. "Sharing the news of the single most important achievement toward higher speed rail for East Texas since the inauguration of Amtrak service in 1974 during her reception is so appropriate because she has been key to this progress."

The AMTRAK Rail Passenger Station is located at the Texas Pacific Railway Depot and Museum in Marshall Texas at 800 North Washington Avenue. The public is invited by the Marshall, Texas T& P Depot, Inc. Board of Directors to join the reception.
